Government Requests Your Help

The Council of National Defense asks every retail merchant to distribute holiday business over the months of October, November and December, to employ no extra help for the Christmas season and not to keep open longer than the regular working hours.

The buying public is requested to ship all gifts that must go by mail or express not later than December 5th.

In an effort to comply with these requests, we ask that you BUY NOW. We are all 100 per cent for whatever aids in the winning of the war. Our Christmas goods are now on display. We have a number of toys for the little folks and the more useful articles for the older folks. Now is the time to buy when there is a nice selection to pick from.

Every life has its December. Don't be old and poor. Bank your money

He had a chance once. When he was young he earned money and could have put some of it in the bank. But now, that money might have grown to be a fortune. At any rate it would have been a snug sum to have, and would have provided for him.

Every life has its December if we live it out.

The Joe Davis property on Grant is being torn down this week and the lumber will be used in making sheds and other improvements on the Davis farm near Range. The Davis house was among the first to be built in Liberal so has served for quite a few years as a dwelling. We surmise that a neat cottage will occupy the place of the old house in the near future.

With the two front office members of the force on the sick list this week getting out the paper is a task. The editor quit the job last Thursday morning and did not show up until Tuesday and then he was no account. Miss Dollie Hill, the mainstay of the information end was off Tuesday and Wednesday on account of sickness and things went every way around here.
